

Revised Pitch

Do you make plans with friends that never make it out of the group chat? With playdate, they will!

Playdate is an app that allows you to explore fun, new activities to do with friends and encourages you to complete these activities together by providing a soft deadline. By exploring playdates specific to your interests, creating custom plans for your friends, and reflecting on all of the things you've done together, playdate revitalizes your close connections in a way that no other app will.

Strengthen your friendships with new adventures. Go on a playdate today!
