

Occupational Therapist

- Working with individuals who have disabilities to help them live more independently and improve their quality of life.
- Assessing and treating occupational performance problems.
- Implementing treatment plans to improve occupational performance.

