

The Working Committee was critical for:

1. Keeping consistent stream of significant changes
2. Informing work force of ongoing activities of the project
3. Encouraging participation for research projects
4. Applying research findings to benefit of potential beneficiaries

The Working Committee was critical for:

- 1. Keeping the committee abreast of significant changes
- 2. Collaborating with the rest of ongoing activities of the project
- 3. Encouraging participation by various groups
- 4. Analyzing research findings in terms of potential interventions

The Working Committee was critical for:

- 1. Keeping members aware of significant changes
- 2. Following work plan of ongoing activities of the project
- 3. Encouraging participation for research projects
- 4. Analyzing research findings in terms of practical consequences

