Questions, Comments, Suggestions, or Concerns?

Please notify me of your comments, suggestions, and concerns so I can explain / address / correct them before the end-of-term course evaluation.

Week 10 Class Sessions

- ▶ Tue, Mar 8th
End-of-Term Student Team Project Presentations

- ▶ Thu, Mar 10th
Student Team & Individual Project Demonstrations
Burritos

Reminder - Work with Extreme Diligence

- ▶ Time is your most precious resource
- ▶ End-of-term project demonstrations - Thursday, Mar 10th

Project Demonstrations - Thursday

- ▶ Bring all prototypes to class
- ▶ Meet in classroom to fill out a course evaluation form
- ▶ Project demonstrations in classroom or outside on patio
- ▶ No posters or handouts - informal "trade show" presentations
- ▶ Demonstrate prototype's functionality
- ▶ Make sure Bennett & I check it out
- ▶ Check out other teams' projects
- ▶ Enjoy burritos & drinks
- ▶ Community members will attend
- ▶ Invite project suggestors, users, friends who contributed to your project's success
- ▶ Bring laptop to show additional videos and images of your process (no power outside)

Project Considerations

- ▶ Your prototype should be functional, but not necessarily ready for market
- ▶ Contingency plans if things don't work out
- ▶ Add a team or Stanford logo
- ▶ Never apologize for what you did or what you were not able to achieve
- ▶ Mention future plans
- ▶ Remember “Everything is a prototype”

Course Evaluations

1. Dave's in-class evaluation on Thursday
2. Cardinal Course Student Survey (?)
3. VPTL's evaluation - online on your own - see Week 10 in Review

Online Scoring Form

10b - Anonymous Scoring Sheet for End-of-term Student Team Project Presentations

This quarter ten student teams have been addressing problems experienced by individuals with disabilities or older adults and have been working to research, brainstorm, design, fabricate, and test a prototype device or software to meet the identified problem. Each team will give a formal presentation detailing their project activities. Please note that this was a seven-week team project effort and the students' prototypes are not intended to represent commercial offerings.

I am: - a student, - faculty member, - community member, - other: _____

Thank you for attending this year's mid-term student team project presentations for ENGR110/210. Student teams have been addressing problems experienced by individuals with disabilities or older adults and have been working to understand the problem, brainstorm, design, fabricate, and test a prototype device or software to meet an identified challenge. The teaching team would appreciate your assistance in judging the quality of the students' project and presentation efforts. Please read the criteria below and submit your scores, suggestions, and comments. Use a pen and print legibly as your comments will be disseminated to the project teams.

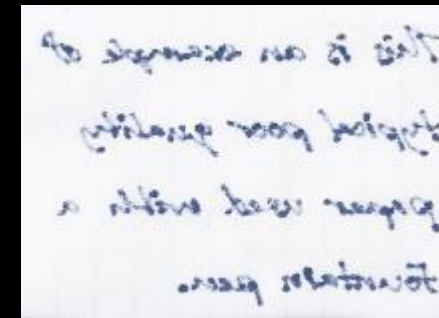

- Judge the overall quality of the presentation, design process, prototyped concepts in the following areas:
 - Presentation & Delivery: Presentation: (What the team presented) - clarity, organization, and completeness of the information presented. Delivery: (How the team presented) - professionalism, enthusiasm, conviction, confidence, energy, volume.
 - Process: (How the team addressed the problem) - problem information, background research, design concepts brainstormed, prototyped, tested, and evaluated.
 - Design: (What the team produced) - creativity, originality, functionality of the design concept(s), and the likelihood it will meet the user's challenges.
 - Overall: (Overall score) - combined impression of presentation and project effort
- Use these metrics: ⓐ = Excellent (Top 10%) ⓑ = Very Good (Top 25%) ⓒ = Good (Middle) ⓓ = Fair (Bottom 25%) ⓔ = Poor (Bottom 10%)
- Please provide your comments and suggestions about the course, this mid-term presentation, and the overall evaluation process. Thank you for your participation!

Everyone is welcome to evaluate the teams' presentations

Do not score your team's presentation

Please use a pen that doesn't bleed through the paper and has a legible font
