To apply for financial aid for Summer Quarter, students with a complete financial aid application on file for the current academic year, need only to submit this completed form to the Financial Aid Office by June 1.

Students who have not applied for financial aid for the current academic year, must complete in addition to this form the following requirements by June 1:

- 1) Submit a 2007-2008 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>.
- 2) Submit a signed copy of your parent's 2006 federal income tax return, including all W-2's and schedules filed, along with this form, to the Financial Aid Office.

Summer Quarter enrollment does count toward students' twelve quarters of undergraduate enrollment, including coursework taken at other institutions, used to determine university scholarship eligibility. Financial aid for Summer Quarter is most often awarded in the form of self-help, i.e. job earnings and loans. Any available scholarship funds will be targeted for students who must complete their Stanford degree within the current academic year. Students who took a leave of absence from the University during the current academic year may request to use a prior quarter's aid for Summer. The Financial Aid Office will send award letter notifications via email beginning early June.
