Educating For Youth Purpose Around the World

Having a sense of purpose is part of a life well-lived. How do young people around the world come to identify a positive purpose in life, and what is the role of education in providing the momentum to realize it? In this webinar, experts from six countries explore these questions from multiple national viewpoints.

PRESENTERS:

Dr. Seana Moran - Clark University (U.S.A.)

Dr. Ulisses Araújo - University of São Paulo (Brazil)

Dr. Pilar Folgueiras, Dr. Esther Luna, Dr. Barbara Biglia and Dr. Berta Palou - University of Barcelona (Spain)

Dr. Kirsi Tirri & Dr. Elina Kuusisto - University of Helsinki (Finland)

Dr. Fei Jiang - Northeast Normal University (China)

Dr. Jongho Shin - Seoul National University (South Korea)

Dr. Jenni Menon Mariano - University of South Florida Sarasota-Manatee (U.S.A.)

October 29th, 5:30 - 6:40 AM (US Eastern Standard Time)

6:30 AM (São Paulo), 10:30 AM (London), 11:30 AM (Barcelona), 12:30 PM (Helsinki), 5:30 PM (Changchun), 6:30 PM (Seoul)